Dear <Patient Name>,

Recently we sent you a letter regarding our new laser treatment for skin rejuvenation (or any other application). The new Thermascan Skin Rejuvenation treatment takes anti-aging technology to a new level with its uniquely gentle and effective approach. There is no down time, and the procedure can be right on your lunch hour!

Find out how we can help you have the skin you always wanted by calling our office today. You are under no obligation, and this new treatment is definitely worth learning about.

Please call (office number) to set up a private consultation. We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

<Your name>
